Presentation Day!

Please do the following:

Greet your audience.

Tell us the purpose of your presentation.

Begin your presentation promptly.

Include a visual and know how you will display it.

Point to your visual as you explain the items on it.

Glance at your audience.

Conclude your presentation without saying, "Thank you for..."

Never Ever...

Stand before me laughing and playing around!

Stand before me yelling at or putting down your teammates.

Stand before me ill-prepared, mumbling, or without rehearsing many times!

Stand before me pushing or hitting someone on your team.

Stand before me reading off your paper and without making any eye contact!
