

Study Guide

Listen up, Young People! It's time to study! Here are some concepts you must know before your END OF THE QUARTER exam! Start studying now; do NOT WAIT until it's too late! Think "Crafting Party, Crafting Party!"

Set 1

What is the difference between the words inference and infer?

Can you recognize a simile when you see one?

What are you looking for when you compare two or more things?

What should you be able to do when you're asked to show the contrast between two things?

The setting of a story covers at least three areas. What are they?

Can you identify how the setting influences a story?

Set 2

Do you know what theme is?
Do you know how to find the theme of a text?

What is figurative language?
Based on how it's used in a story, can you correctly identify the meaning of figurative language?

What vocabulary strategy will you use to identify the meaning of a word you don't know?

What is a chamois?

Set 3

What does foreshadow mean? What does it do?

What is a summary? Do you know how to summarize?

What is an excerpt?

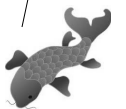

How many definitions can you find for the word, lip?

What is a central idea? How is it different from a theme?

Hee-hee!

Krafting

Pottee!

I'm going!

Oooo!
I'm gonna studyyy!

